Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to the 119th American Political Science Association's Annual Meeting and Exhibition in Los Angeles! We are thrilled to welcome you to a city that is known for its diverse population, global cinema, and beautiful beaches.

This year's conference theme is "Rights and Responsibilities in an Age of Mis- and Disinformation." The theme sits at the confluence of three timely, critical, and interrelated developments. One is the surging dissemination of mis- and disinformation, which has been amplified by technological advances. Another development pertains to pressing threats to human rights both locally and abroad, including those of women, the LGBTQ+ community, and refugees, to name a few. Threats also extend to the right to racial equality, health, free speech, human security, democracy, and environmental rights. The third development is the emergence of voices that remind us of the responsibilities we have as scholars, teachers, and activists, particularly when thinking about how to curb falsehoods and safeguard rights. These three developments have momentous political consequences, both individually but also in combination. Political scientists across subfields and methodological orientations should be part of examining these phenomena from multiple perspectives, ranging from the causal to the normative and everything in between. We are delighted that you responded to our call with a rich set of theme panel proposals that promise to do so.

We encourage you to attend APSA President Lisa Martin's Presidential Address, "Global Governance Confronts the Onslaught of Disinformation," on Thursday, August 31, at 6:30 p.m. in the Los Angeles Convention Center's Petree Hall C. This will be followed by the APSA Opening Reception at 7:30 p.m. in Petree Hall D.

We would like to highlight two exciting, moderated plenary panels. The first plenary, "Mis- and Disinformation in an Age of Human Rights," brings together outstanding political scientists, advocates, representatives of government, and think-tank researchers with expertise in both human rights and countering disinformation to wrestle with issues raised in our theme statement. The second plenary, "The Debate over 'National Conservatism,'" aims to deepen our understanding of contemporary conservatism by focusing on the national conservative movement and building on last year's popular "Voices of the Right" plenary.

We would also like to highlight three moderated breaking news panels. "The Future of Affirmative Action" will grapple with the implications for affirmative action in college/university admissions after the two SCOTUS decisions this summer. "Examining CRT & DEI Mis(Dis)Information," will address the intellectual, policy, and political implications of mis- and disinformation regarding critical race theory and diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts. Our last breaking news panel, "Generative AI and the Future of Political Science" will illuminate what the rapid ascendancy of generative artificial intelligence means for doing, researching, and teaching politics.

Given that we are a stone's throw from Hollywood, we are also excited to offer a unique mini film-festival. Five documentary films will cover issues related to this year's conference theme across several countries (Hong Kong, Russia, and the United States). While each of the films will be an entertaining way to end your busy conference days, we also hope the films will foster and provoke critical discussions of important events. Thought-provoking questions will be provided via a QR code after each film. So, come grab some popcorn and enjoy the research, learning, and teaching potential of film.

In addition, we invite you to visit the Exhibit Hall to meet with our exhibitors and view this year's iPosters, as well as attend the Lightning Rounds on Friday and Saturday.

We are very thankful to those who contributed to putting together this year's terrific program. Division chairs worked very hard to review submissions and select a wide variety of diverse and high-quality panels. APSA's fantastic staff—Ashley, Kristin, Lynanne, and Steve—answered countless emails promptly and helpfully guided us through various challenges. Lisa provided outstanding leadership, reminding us to pay attention to both the details as well as the bigger mission of our gathering. See you at the panels!

ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

APSA has received notice from several sources that graduate students and faculty have experienced sexual harassment at various conference venues. APSA consequently reminds everyone:

The APSA annual meeting and related regional political science meetings are convened for the purposes of professional development and scholarly and educational interchange in the spirit of free inquiry and free expression. Harassment of colleagues, students, or other conference participants undermines the principle of equity at the heart of these professional fora and is inconsistent with the principles of free inquiry and free expression. Consequently, harassment is considered by APSA to be a serious form of professional misconduct.

The following Anti-Harassment Policy outlines expectations for all those who attend or participate in APSA meetings. It reminds APSA meeting participants that all professional academic ethics and norms apply as standards of behavior and interaction at these meetings.

1. Purpose

APSA is committed to providing a safe and welcoming conference environment for all participants, regardless of actual or perceived gender, gender identity, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, ability, socioeconomic status, age, or religion.

"Participant" in this policy refers to anyone present at APSA meetings, including staff, contractors, vendors, exhibitors, venue staff, APSA members, and all other attendees.

2. Expected Behavior

All participants at APSA meetings are expected to abide by this Anti-Harassment Policy in all meeting venues including ancillary events and official and unofficial social gatherings.

- Abide by the norms of professional respect that are necessary to promote the conditions for free academic interchange.
- If you witness potential harm to a conference participant, be proactive in helping to mitigate or avoid that harm.
- Alert conference or security personnel if you see a situation in which someone might be in imminent physical danger.

3. Unacceptable Behavior

Unacceptable behaviors include:

- persistent and unwelcome solicitation of emotional or physical intimacy
- persistent and unwelcome solicitation of emotional or physical intimacy accompanied by real or implied threat of professional harm
- intimidating, harassing, abusive, derogatory or demeaning speech or actions by any participant in an APSA meeting and/or at any related event
- prejudicial actions or comments related to actual or perceived gender, gender identity, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, ability, socioeconomic status, age, or religion that coerce others, foment broad hostility, or otherwise undermine professional equity or the principles of free academic exchange.
- deliberate intimidation, stalking or following;
- harassing photography or recording;
- sustained disruption of talks or other events;
- physical assault (including unwelcome touch or groping)
- real or implied threat of physical harm

iPosters

Posters will be presented in the LACC Exhibit Hall, West Hall A, from Thursday, August 31 through Saturday, September 2. Posters are scheduled by division.

View the 2023 iPosters in the online gallery before, during and after the conference. Posters are searchable by keyword, author name, division, and more. Can't attend the poster session in-person? You can still correspond with the author at any time through the online gallery! Attendees can send comments or messages directly to poster authors through the kiosks onsite, or at any time from their own computer or device via the online gallery.

Interview Services

APSA provides space for employers who have posted an eJobs listing to interview candidates at the APSA Annual Meeting. The service is provided as a complimentary member benefit to Departmental members with an active listing posted on eJobs. Employers must be registered for the Annual Meeting to participate in the Interview Services program. Learn more here: <https://apsanet.org/ejobs>

Departments and candidates that will be attending the Annual Meeting were encouraged to reach out to one another prior to their arrival at the Annual Meeting to schedule an interview. Walk-in appointments are not available.

Interview services will be held in West Hall A behind the Exhibit Hall, according to the following schedule:

Thursday, August 31	8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Friday, September 1	8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Saturday, September 2	8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

All are welcome to the Career Open House, taking place on Thursday from 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. in the Exhibit Hall at the end of aisle 300 next to the APSA Lounge. Sponsored by Cambridge University Press.

Conference Paper Uploads

Conference paper authors are encouraged to post papers delivered at the Annual Meeting to the All Academic submission site and APSA Preprints in the APSA Annual Meeting paper archive. APSA strongly encourages APSA Annual Meeting participants to upload their papers to the Annual Meeting paper repositories. Papers are available online through All Academic to attendees.

APSA Lounge

Visit the APSA Lounge at LACC West Hall A during exhibit hall hours for information on all that APSA offers. Find out about the benefits of membership, the programs offered, and more. Make sure to also stop by the APSA Lounge on Friday, September 1, at 2:00 p.m. for a member reception.

Make Your Presentation More Accessible

- Consider making copies of your presentation and script for those who may request them
- Use large fonts (24 point+) on your slides with a sans serif font (Arial, Verdana, Helvetica)
- Use high contrast, easy-to-read color schemes on the slide
- Caption any videos
- Provide alt text for any images
- Describe your PowerPoint slides, images, and anything else displayed on the screen
- PowerPoint has an Accessibility Checker feature to check your presentation's accessibility
- Avoid pointing and use words like "this, that, these, and those" as subjects or objects
- Speak audibly and at a moderate pace
- Keep your hands away from your mouth so that people who speech read can understand you
- Ensure only one person speaks at a time
- Do not walk in front of interpreters when they're signing
- When you address the person using an interpreter, look at the person, not the interpreter

Los Angeles Information Booth

The Los Angeles Information Booth is staffed by a Los Angeles Tourism & Convention Board representative. It is located in the LACC West Hall Lobby next to Galaxy Café, directly across from Registration. They are available from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday through Saturday. They can answer questions that you have regarding the city, attractions, restaurants, and more. They also provide the L.A. Perks Pass to all attendees, which allows you to receive discounts and special offers at local establishments.

Virtual Access Rooms

Virtual offices are available in West Hall B (meeting rooms 1-8), as well as in Room 519, on a first-come, space available basis. Rooms will have a 6' table with chairs and general wifi access. We recommend bringing your device/laptop, power cord, and headphones/headset.

Coffee & Food

The Los Angeles Convention Center will have its Ground Works coffee shop open from 7 a.m. – 3 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday.

1:00 p.m. Film: History in the Profession: APSA Oral History Project:

Dr. Kathie Stromile Golden, Mississippi Valley State University

Dr. Kathie Stromile Golden, of Mississippi Valley State University, discusses how her work explores the politics and public policies related to STEM fields and how having a background in political science prepared her for working in over 70 countries on women's rights, access to health care and more. She reflects on her leadership roles as a university administrator and as the executive director of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists (NCOBPS).

2:00 p.m. Breaking News: The Supreme Court and the Future of Affirmative Action

The most anticipated Supreme Court rulings this summer include two cases pertaining to affirmative action—students for Fair Admissions (SEFA) v. University of North Carolina and SEFA v. Harvard University. The oral arguments suggest that the court will strike down or at least weaken considerations of race in school admissions. This panel engages with a number of timely questions related to these rulings: Did the Supreme Court's rulings validate these expectations? To what extent do these most recent rulings depart from the court's precedent? What are the effects on student bodies, especially at elite institutions and HBCUs? How will universities respond to these rulings? Are there suitable race-neutral alternatives that will ensure the diversity of student populations? How do these rulings shape our understanding of racial discrimination? What are the implications beyond higher education?

- 10:00 a.m. Breaking News: Examining CRT & DEI Mis(Dis)Information:
The Intellectual, Policy, and Political Implications in the Academy and Beyond
Over the past several years, both attention to and recognition of systemic inequities that create marginalization based on race, ethnicity, gender, religion, sexuality, ability and more have grown. Simultaneously, there is growing hostility to attempts to identify and ameliorate past and present inequities. This backlash has resulted in significant social and political attacks on explanations of those inequities (e.g., Critical Race Theory [CRT]), as well as efforts developed to ameliorate the inequities themselves (e.g., Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion [DEI] measures). This hostility is driven by mis- and dis-information campaigns, and a significant amount of ire is currently targeted at higher education (in particular, scholars that engage with DEI work and CRT), as well as professors from marginalized identity groups (regardless of the focus of their research). This roundtable will include a discussion of the current state of these attacks and their effects on scholars, higher education, and society as well.

"National Conservatism'." The National Conservative movement has held a series of international conferences since 2019, and in 2022 over 80 leading conservative academics and public intellectuals from the U.S. and 10 other nations joined in endorsing a 10-point National Conservatism "Statement of Principles." It rejects "universalist ideologies" such as "liberal imperialism" and "globalism" in favor of "upholding national traditions." Other conservatives have criticized the National Conservatives, some contending that the principles of the Declaration of Independence and of universalistic religious faiths deserve more allegiance than nation-states. This panel will include leading voices from inside and outside academia who represent both National Conservatism's adherents and its conservative critics, so that political scientists can better grasp the themes and debates characterizing conservatism in the U.S. and many other nations today.

4:00 p.m. Plenary: Mis- and Disinformation in an Age of Human Rights

Political communication can be fraught with mis- and disinformation, with crucial consequences for human rights. Misinformation related to covid-19, for example, undercuts the right to health. Election-related disinformation corrodes the right to free and fair elections. Falsehoods that amplify hatred against racial and ethnic, religious, or political minorities violate the right to non-discrimination and freedom of religion. At the same time, apparent attempts to fight mis- and disinformation could be employed against political opponents and critical journalists, undermining the right to assembly, free speech and freedom of the press. Our plenary panel will focus on rights and responsibilities in a world of mis- and disinformation. How can we conceive of and undertake our work and civic responsibilities in ways that lower the harm of mis- and disinformation? How should we rethink complex governance structures, political communication, democracy, algorithms, or freedom of expression, if at all? This panel aims to bring together a diverse group of political scientists, representatives of big tech, government officials, and members of nonprofits to grapple with problems and solutions posed by dis- and misinformation.

4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. Mini-Film Festival: Unapologetic

Unapologetic captures a tense and polarizing moment in Chicago's fight for the livelihood of its Black residents. The film follows Janaé and Bella, two young abolitionist organizers, as they work within the Movement for Black Lives to seek justice for Rekia Boyd and Laquan McDonald, two young Black people killed by Chicago police. They aim to elevate a progressive platform for criminal justice to a police board led by Lori Lightfoot and a complicit city administration, while also elevating leadership by women and femmes.

5:45 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. Mini-Film Festival: Suppressed and Sabotaged

Suppressed and Sabotaged: The Fight To Vote (2022) by Robert Greenwald (Director of Outfoxed, Walmart: The High Cost of Low Price, and Making A Killing: Guns Greed and the NRA) is a powerful documentary about the growing threat of voter suppression and election sabotage to our 2022 midterm elections. In 2021, 19 states passed 34 new voter laws following the Big Lie of the 2020 election. The film focuses on this recent wave of voter suppression and subversion laws being enacted in states, and how the 2018 Georgia gubernatorial race between Stacey Abrams and Brian Kemp provides a case study for understanding today's voter suppression laws across the country. Suppressed and Sabotaged: The Fight To Vote now includes perspectives from voters in Arizona, Florida, Texas, and Georgia that highlight how these new laws will affect their constitutional right to vote. Suppression tactics covered in the film include: deliberate barriers to registration; polling place closures; voter purges; missing absentee ballots; extreme wait times at polling locations; exact match disqualifications; new vote by mail limitations; changes to ballot collection and drop off and more.

2023 PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Voter suppression laws disproportionately affect American Students, Senior Citizens, Black, Indigenous, Latine, and People of Color from casting their ballots. Suppressed and Sabotaged 2022 is a call to action against the calculated, unconstitutional and racist attacks intended to suppress the right to vote in America.

LIGHTNING ROUNDS

APSA is excited to announce the return of Lightning Rounds for the 2023 Annual Meeting. Lightning Rounds are similar to PechaKucha. Each scholar has five minutes to present, followed by five minutes of feedback or Q&A. This format provides a structured framework, giving presenters not only an opportunity to share their research at the world's largest political science meeting, but also an opportunity to develop and enhance research communication skills through a concise presentation. Coffee is available for all session participants. All sessions will take place in the Los Angeles Convention Center, Room 153C.

The Lightning Rounds will take place on Friday, September 1, and Saturday, September 2, as part of the Emerging Scholars Symposium. A Graduate Student Happy Hour will be held Saturday evening at 6:30 p.m. in LACC, Room Petree D.

2023 Mini-Film Festival

Grab some popcorn and enjoy the research, learning, and teaching potential of film at APSA's inaugural Mini-Film Festival.

With this year's annual meeting being hosted in Los Angeles, the 2023 Annual Meeting Program Chairs Zoltán Búzás and Felicity Vabulas are thrilled to offer a unique mini-film festival during the conference. This is particularly apropos because the convention center is a stone's throw from Hollywood and the city is known for global cinema.

Documentary film can serve as primary source material for research, elevating the voices of marginalized communities and undiscovered stories. Film can also serve as a valuable tool for advocacy and teaching by exposing students to political themes that come to life before their eyes. The conference co-chairs have chosen five documentary films that cover issues related to this year's conference theme and showcase diversity in both topic and location.

While each of the films will be an entertaining way to end your busy conference days, we also hope the films will foster and provoke critical discussions of important events that you might also take back to the classroom.

All films will take place in Los Angeles Convention Center, Room 411.

The Rise and Fall of Hong Kong

Thursday, August 31, 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

This film explores Hong Kong's battle for their democracy with interviews from protestors, professors, politicians, and activists telling how their new National Security Law has turned this international business mecca into a Chinese controlled police state.

Unapologetic

Friday, September 1, 4:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Unapologetic captures a tense and polarizing moment in Chicago's fight for the livelihood of its Black residents. The film follows Janaé and Bella, two young abolitionist organizers, as they work within the Movement for Black Lives to seek justice for Rekia Boyd and Laquan McDonald, two young Black people killed by Chicago police. They aim to elevate a progressive platform for criminal justice to a police board led by Lori Lightfoot and a complicit city administration, while also elevating leadership by women and femmes. ## Suppressed and Sabotaged: The Fight to Vote

Friday, September 1, 5:45 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

Join us for the film Suppressed and Sabotaged: The Fight to Vote from Brave New Films. Suppressed and Sabotaged: The Fight to Vote (2022) by Robert Greenwald (Director of Outfoxed, Walmart: The High Cost of Low Price, and Making A Killing: Guns Greed and the NRA) is a powerful documentary about the growing threat of voter suppression and election sabotage to our 2022 midterm elections. In 2021, 19 states passed 34 new voter laws following the Big Lie of the 2020 election. The film focuses on this recent wave of voter suppression and subversion laws being enacted in states, and how the 2018 Georgia gubernatorial race between Stacey Abrams and Brian Kemp provides a case study for understanding today's voter suppression laws across the country. ## The First Step

Saturday, September 2, 4:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

In a divided America, Van Jones controversially works across party lines on landmark criminal justice reform and a more humane response to the addiction crisis. Attempting to be a bridge builder in a time of extreme polarization, takes him deep into the inner workings of a divisive administration, internal debates within both parties, & the lives of frontline activists fighting for their communities.

Navalny

Saturday, September 2, 6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Navalny takes viewers inside the careful investigation into the shocking and brazen assassination attempt against Russian opposition leader Alexey Navalny, and who was behind it. Through his years-long campaign against corruption among Russia's elites, Navalny has developed powerful enemies. His publicized revelations, and calls for democratic reforms, have enraged Vladimir Putin, who refuses to even say his name in public. In August 2020, Navalny was secretly poisoned with a military-grade chemical nerve agent in an elaborate attempt on his life. ## AMERICAN ACADEMY OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Founded in 1870, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences is both an honorary society that recognizes and celebrates the excellence of its members and an independent research center convening leaders from across disciplines, professions, and perspectives to address significant challenges. The Academy's elected members join with other experts in cross-disciplinary efforts to produce nonpartisan, reflective, and pragmatic studies that inform public policy and advance the public good.

The Capital Fellows Programs are nationally recognized public policy fellowships rooted in experiential learning, policy development, and public service in each branch of state government. Capital Fellows spend 10-11 months in a cohort working in a Legislative, Executive or Judicial Branch office. Fellows are placed at some of the highest levels of California state government and assist state legislators, senior-level executive staff, and court administrators with a broad range of public policy issues and projects.

VIRTUAL RESEARCH MEETING

"CHALLENGES IN POLITICAL SCIENCE"

FEBRUARY 8 – 9, 2024 EST

The American Political Science Association (APSA) is excited to announce the launch of the APSA Virtual Research Meeting, an inaugural online event, for scholars interested in sharing their research.

GENERAL PAPER AND PANEL SUBMISSIONS

This two-day virtual event will provide a forum for scholars interested in sharing their research, providing constructive feedback for others, and creating partnerships and networks for future collaboration.

This 100% digital distance-learning event will also feature opportunities to learn from research workshops, general panels, and a keynote panel around the theme of "Challenges in Political Science."

The system will open for general panel & paper submissions in early September 2023. Stay tuned!

For general panels & papers, submitters will be able to select up to three (3) keywords for their proposal. The program committee will review and create general panels out of the received proposals. Some sample keywords include:

- 2024 Elections
- African American Politics
- Asian American Politics
- Comparative Politics
- Democracy and Democratization
- International Relations
- LGBTQ+ Politics
- Mental Health
- Political Behavior & Identity
- Political Communication
- Political Economy
- Political Methodology
- Political Parties and Organizations
- Public Policy
- Security and Intelligence

ANNA SAMPAIO

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Announcing a new Temple University Press series:
Intersectionality publishes timely and dynamic new research on intersectional politics. Drawing from complex origins in articulations of identity and power as well as applications of intersectionality as methodology and as an analytical tool, this series highlights the breadth and depth of intersectional research, its evolution in the social sciences, and the significance of intersectionality to understanding of—and political organizing amidst—contemporary politics.
